Council asks to meet PCC after station closure announcement

FOLLOWING the decision to close the police station, Seaton Town Council will invite Devon and Cornwall Police Commissioner Tony Hogg to attend a meeting with them to discuss the future of policing in the town.

Although the public enquiry office at the station has been closed for several years, the complete closure of the station comes amid Devon and Cornwall's planned £54million cost cutting initiative.

Seaton Mayor, Councillor Tony Woodman, who proposed the motion at the town council meeting on October 24th, has in the past voiced his desire for the residents and the council to "stand up and fight" to save vital services for the town.

At the meeting Cllr Woodman said he wanted to talk to the powers that be to discuss the future of policing in Seaton.

"I think it will be a good idea, at this early stage to try and get a meeting with Mr Hogg and the Chief Constable Shaun Sawyer, so we can talk about what they plan to do in Seaton. Rather than us waiting to be told what is going to be done."

New Community Beat Manager, PC Richard Jenkins, had clarified a few issues, earlier on in the meeting in regards to the closing of the police station.

"As result of the Devon and Cornwall's savings

by Peter Hodges

that have to be made, they are looking at closing up to 34 buildings, not all necessarily stations, and Seaton is one of them. The way it is planned is, there are five phases across the next five years and Seaton sits in the second phase at the moment, which means that between 2016/17, they will start looking at the process of closing down the police station.

"The process will take about a year to do, which means we are probably looking at, roughly, two years from now, the police station in Seaton will close," PC Jenkins said.

PC Jenkins went on to say that at the moment the police force was looking for potential spaces where they could be based.

"The new community base would be shared with other public sectors partners in Seaton and would be a place for the officers to complete paper work and their IT duties.

The search for new premises was backed by Cllr Woodman who said: "Knowing where we [the council] are hoping to be in 12 months' time, I think we could actually work with the police and, together, come up with a base for them in Seaton."

Spooky goes-on at The Gateway

THE Seaton Gateway team held a frightful Halloween party on October 29th. There was spooky cake decorating, a best costume competition for all ages, a prize for the best pumpkin, 'make your own' spider webs, a bouncy castle and food and drink. Organisers said: "The decorations at the hall were incredible and the DJ kept everyone dancing, with the Time Warp and ending on the Macarena."

TOP STORIES FROM ACROSS EAST DEVON AND SOUTH SOMERSET

SIDMOUTH

No public right of way at Knowle

EAST Devon District Council have welcomed the decision to reject a public backed move to register public footpaths at the Knowle.

In April 2012, the Knowle Residents' Association had asked Devon County Council to designate several footpaths on the Knowle campus as public rights of way under the Wildlife and Countryside Act 1981.

Knowle Residents' Association members wanted several paths to be legally recognised as public rights of way, as they have been used by the local community for over 20 years. Protesters felt that access to these area would be affected after the sale of the Knowle to developers Pegasus Ltd.

However, the planning application was originally refused in June 2013 so KRA lodged an appeal with the Planning Inspectorate.

After various legal appeal processes, Martin Elliott, the inspector, has agreed with the district council that no order should be made to dedicate any of the claimed routes as public rights of way.

Mr Elliott gave his reasoning that the argument that the public had the right to use the area was unfounded as the use of the whole of the Knowle is regulated by bylaws.

EDDC Chief Executive, Mark Williams said: "Given the criticism the council was subject to following the initial appeal decision, the council is pleased that its position on this matter has been vindicated following the determination of by the inspector."

The land in question is owned by EDDC.

OTTERY ST MARY Halloween spirit on Carnival night

OTTERY St Mary's busiest week of the year kicked off in style as local residents got into the Halloween spirit by cheering on the season ending carnival.

With Tar Barrels on Thursday (November 5th), the carnival made sure it wasn't overlooked with a host of fantastic and ingenious entrants.

Re-joining the carnival scene this year after a year out were Sidvale CC, who have enjoyed a successful return to the illuminated circuit. Once again Sidvale picked up the award for best overall float just as they had done in Sidmouth last month.

Ottery's own OSMVSU CC also proved to have a successful carnival season, regularly picking up awards as well. This year's float was based around the popular Elvis Presley film 'Jailhouse Rock'.

The carnival day started at 2pm as the town turned out in force to witness the crowning of the carnival royalty by Lady Coleridge.

The carnival now precedes the world famous and long standing tradition that is the Flaming Tar Barrel event with thousands of visitors expected to attend the event and enjoy the thrill of avoiding the runners.

Organisers of Tar Barrels encourage donations from all attendants to help meet the significant costs of keeping the historical event alive.

The event sees a huge number of town marshals, barrel marshals, security and volunteers give up their time to help the public enjoy the local tradition.

From the editor's chair A caring service indeed

WHAT would Axminster do without the Care Service? I ask the question after our report this week that the service has pumped more than £40,000 into needy causes over the past 18 months.

The range of donations and support offered by this charity is nothing short of staggering, covering virtually every aspect of community and social life in Axminster.

They make a real difference to the lives of so many people in and around the town.

At an event last Saturday to launch the care service's new website and social media outlets, MP Neil Parish praised the volunteers who work so hard to ensure that the people of Axminster, young and old, are never forgotten.

Many will argue that some of the help they dispense to those who are struggling to make ends meet in these days of austerity should be provided by the State. In an ideal world, yes. But life in the United Kingdom at the moment is far from ideal with George Osborne being forced to think again about his cuts to tax credits.

I'm not a big fan of the House of Lords but on this occasion I think they did the right thing.

Life is a struggle for many young families and without the support of organisations like Axminster Care Service, it would be much worse.

But it doesn't happen without a great deal of organisation and voluntary effort which we should never underestimate.

♦ MY mainly tongue-in-cheek comments about Chard in this column last week did not go down too well in some quarters. It was not my intention to belittle the town or its residents, the intention being to highlight that Chard's reputation was not a fair reflection of what the town is all about.

Philip Evans

AXMINSTER Care service's £40k for needy

AXMINSTER Care Service has been praised for the fantastic community work that they do in the area.

In the past 18 months the organisation, which runs the Togs charity shop in South Street, has pumped more than £40,000 in various local projects.

At a "Meet the Team" event on Saturday, which coincided with the launch of the services' new website, Twitter and Facebook accounts, local MP Neil Parish praised the volunteers' hard work and enthusiasm.

The care service boasts close to 90 local volunteers all from the Axe Valley area and offers a whole host of services including transport to help people get to hospital, the surgery and chiropody appointments they might otherwise miss.

Every two years the ACS delivers to each Axminster household a comprehensive booklet contacting useful information about other local services and organisations.

HONITON Town centre set to shine

HONITON Chamber of Commerce's mission to light up the town this Christmas is proving to be a big success – but there is still time for businesses who haven't donated to do so.

The campaign has so far raised a fantastic £5,265 with plenty of local businesses donating to the fund by pledging between £100 and £250.

Mandy Newman from the Chamber of Commerce has been working hard visiting most of the businesses in town but, inevitably, there are some she still has not spoken to.

Mandy said: "Yet again, we have had a great response from local businesses helping us to light up the town for Christmas."

"All I ask is that businesses who did not contribute last year and have not yet contributed this year think again. Lighting up the town means Honiton can compete with other towns for Christmas trade and it's great for those of us with grandchildren for the town to have a festive atmosphere."

The Chamber of Commerce is still in negotiations to purchase more lights for the town, but so far 22 sets of lights will be put up on High Street, and New Street will have a large banner light at the front plus crisscross lighting.

SOUTH SOMERSET County seeks 100 social workers

SOMERSET County Council has launched a campaign to attract new social workers to the area.

The campaign, named "Power of 8", will showcase what the county's Children's Services department has to offer as it looks to secure up to 100 new permanent social workers to help continue the service's improvements.

New workers are being offered a relocation package of up to £8,000, training and career development opportunities.

Councillor Frances Nicholson, Cabinet Member for Children and Families said Somerset County Council was offering social workers a chance to be part of something "really exciting".

"We are making improvements, investing in the service and have an authority that it is entirely committed to making our Children's Services something we can be truly proud of," she added. Earlier this year Somerset County Council invested £6million to help boost social work capacity in Somerset. An impressive benefits offer has been developed for children's social workers including the chance to buy extra holiday to add to the existing allocation.

At the same time as the new initiative, the county council is leading a consortium of local authorities in the government's "Step Up to Social Work" programme. Somerset will receive eight trainee social workers and last week the new recruits met their prospective employers for the first time.

The "Step Up Social Work" programme targeted graduates with a 2.1 in any discipline who had experience of working with children. It is a 14 month, fast-track endeavour, which will lead to a Post Graduate Diploma in social work for the trainees.

SEATON Council asks to meet PCC over station closure

FOLLOWING the decision to close the police station, Seaton Town Council will invite Devon and Cornwall Police Commissioner Tony Hogg to attend a meeting with them to discuss the future of policing in the town.

Familiar face supports Poppy Appeal launch

by Kevin Fahey

CHAMPION fundraiser Yvonne Hawker was joined by colleagues for a successful launch of the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal in Beer last week.

Mrs Hawker is now in her 43rd year of selling poppies to raise funds for the Armed Forces community and was back in action in the Mariners' Hall.

"I joined the Royal British Legion as an 18-year-old and have been selling poppies since I was 20," said Mrs Hawker.

"I am now the chairman of the RBL women's section."

Tomorrow (Wednesday, November 4th) Mrs Hawker will be joined by her colleagues, including poppy organiser Peter Anderson and members of 1st Beer Scouts and Axe Air Explorers to sell poppies door-to-door in Beer.

"Last year we raised £2,000 which is not bad for a small village and hopefully I can get close to that again," said Mr Anderson.

"We also raised £234 from the coffee morning in the Mariners' Hall which was pretty good."

The annual Remembrance Service will be held at St Michael's Church, Beer, on Sunday, November 8th with the roll call of deceased at 10.50am followed by a two-minute silence at 11am and then a church service.

Poppy Appeal organiser Peter Anderson, vice-chairman of the Royal British Legion Women's Section Pat Bewick and chairwoman Yvonne Hawker

New East Devon ear, nose and throat clinic to affect doctor's availability

FOLLOWING NEW Devon CCG agreeing to commission community Ear, Nose and Throat clinics by Townsend House Medical Centre's Dr Robert Daniels, the Seaton based doctor's availability to see his patients is changing.

The clinics will be held each Wednesday at community hospitals in East Devon including Seaton and Ottery St Mary and as a result Dr Daniels will only be available to see patients Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays.

Patients for the clinics must be referred by their usual GP and this service is commissioned to run until at least March 2016, at which time there is the potential for the contract to be extended.

In a statement Townsend House Medical Centre said: "We understand this may cause upset and distress to patients under his care and would like to reassure patients that they are free to see any doctor of their choosing should Dr Daniels be unavailable."

"Dr Jon Dove, who has recently joined the practice, works from both Seaton and Beer surgeries, covering four days a week - Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

"Should patients wish to transfer their care to Dr Dove, or any other doctor, the surgery will accommodate that request as soon as possible."

● BETWEEN November 9th and 18th, Dr Rob Daniels will be undertaking voluntary medical work in Rwanda

He will be unavailable during that time but the medical centre assures its patients that any of the other doctors will see those who cannot wait until his return.

New heating system at Mariners Hall

by Kevin Fahey

THE refurbishment of the Mariners' Hall in Beer continues apace with the installation of a new heating system.

With a new roof having only just been recently completed following the fundraising 'Raise The Roof' campaign hall chairman Mike Parker and treasurer and property maintenance manager Martin Ball turned their attention towards renovating the creaking heating system.

After judicious research Mr Ball secured a generous grant provided by Viridor Credits Environmental Company operating through the Landfill Communities Fund to finance the work, which was carried out by Axe Vale Heating and Plumbing Ltd of Musbury.

"A much needed new heating system has been installed in the Mariners Hall in Beer replacing outdated heaters that were proving difficult to maintain," said Mr Ball.

"The installation includes replacement heaters for the main hall operated by a central control and a new boiler system to provide hot water and service new radiators in the Balcony Meeting Room.

"The management committee confidently expects these improvements will provide a more comfortable amenity for all users of the hall and should also provide a saving in energy costs.

"The committee is very grateful for the support and assistance given by Viridor Credits in advancing this project."

Mr Ball explained that the Viridor Credits Environmental Company not-for-profit groups, organisations and projects that would not necessarily obtain funding from other, often more complicated, grant schemes as long as that project is located within 10 miles of an active Viridor landfill site.

Viridor Credits is looking for further projects to fund located within 10 miles of active Viridor-managed landfill sites.

Community groups can visit www.viridor-credits.co.uk, call 01823 476476, email enquiries@viridor-credits.co.uk or write to Viridor Credits Environmental Company, Aintree House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton, Somerset TA1 2PX for more information.

Community to vote for Cosmic's next charity

HONITON-based web design and management company, Cosmic, have launched a search for a charity to support next year.

The reason they are doing it this way is so that smaller, unknown charities are able to put themselves forward as well as larger, more well-known local ones.

Any charity is eligible to be nominated as long as they are based in the South West and benefit local people through their activities.

Once nominations have closed on Sunday, November 15th, all nominated charities will be shortlisted by staff at Cosmic with the finalists being uploaded to an online voting system where the public can vote for their preferred charity.

The online vote will be open for two weeks and the winning charity will be announced on Monday, December 7th in time for Cosmic's first fundraising events in the New Year.

launched the search and said: "This is a brilliant new scheme developed by the Cosmic staff team, and is a great reflection on how we succeed in recent years is allowing us to support even more charitable work in the area."

"Cosmic's charity for 2016 can expect lots of support, encouragement and plenty of Cosmic passion!"

In the past, Cosmic have supported charities such as the Honiton food bank, Force Cancer Charity, Exeter Leukaemia Fund, Devon Air Ambulance and the new Honiton day hospice appeal.

Last December the team took part in an office triathlon in support of the day hospice, during which they beat their target of £500 by nearly double.

To nominate a charity, visit www.cosmic.org.uk/charity and enter their name, charity number, website address – if applicable – and reasons why they are being nominated.

For more information contact Alex Jackson at alex@cosmic.org.uk or call 01404 548405.

Ten year lease granted to the Beehive

HONITON Town Council has announced that a 10 year lease has been granted to Honiton Community Complex now that it has obtained charitable status.

Whilst the resolution to grant the lease was made in March a condition had been specified which required Honiton Community Complex to obtain charitable status before signing the lease.

The lease and service level agreement which were approved in March 2015 were signed by Mr Martin Potts and Mr John Burgess, Directors of the Beehive and Honiton Mayor Cllr Caroline Kolek and the signing was witnessed by Deputy Mayor Cllr Jackie Wadsworth and Town Clerk Chetna Jones.

News briefs

Arrests in drugs operation

POLICE Officers from the Exeter, East and Mid Devon Proactive team, along with the town's Neighbourhood Police Team and the Road Crime Unit, carried out a successful drugs operation in the Honiton area, which led to the arrest of three individuals.

The individuals were arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the supply of a Class A substance and money laundering. As a result, all three have been bailed pending further enquiries with two persons being given bail conditions not to enter Devon.

Ongoing proactive work will continue as local policing teams look to target those suspected of supplying or using drugs in the area.

The operation was carried out on the afternoon of Wednesday, October 20th 2015.

New challenge for Aspire team

A GROUP of 12 young employees from Axminster Tools & Machinery, known as the Aspire team, have taken on a Halloween-theme challenge in the style of hit BBC series 'The Apprentice' to raise money for local charity Health & Local Food for Families.

The group has been split into two teams of six – Genesis, led by Grant Jones, and Invictus, led by Mitch Hopkins – and will compete against each other to see who is able to make the most sales and profit.

Playing the role of Lord Alan Sugar, Axminster Tools & Machinery managing director Ian Styles has given the two teams the task of producing, branding, marketing and selling as many Halloween related products as they can throughout the week.

Each team has a budget to cover overheads such as production, marketing and rent.

Both teams are looking at creating a retail experience such as a pop-up shop and market stall from which to sell their produce, but also approaching other businesses who may wish to place large bulk orders.

They will not only be judged on their sales and bottom line profit, but also on key business skills such as organisation, marketing and financial acumen.

Mr Styles commented: "This task will really challenge our Aspire team members."

"They will be faced with having to take many of the decisions those of us in business take every day."

"I'm really looking forward to seeing how the teams progress within the task, how they cope and who displays which skills."

"It's an exciting time and a great opportunity for these aspiring individuals."

Just like 'The Apprentice', each team also has its own "Claude Littner" (Alan Styles) and "Karren Brady" (Hayley Jones) in the background, keeping an eye on how they are performing and reporting back on their progress to Mr Styles.

Alan and Hayley's observations will play an important role in which team is eventually judged to be the winner.

Both teams have until 3pm on Friday, October 30th to complete the task.

They must then submit their final takings to finance director Michael Trimble and re-convene in the boardroom to deliver their presentations and face the judges' decision.

"But hopefully Mr Styles won't be taking on Lord Sugar's catchphrase, 'You're fired'!"

Aspire is a 12-month management development programme designed to encourage and widen the potential of selected talented individuals. This is the second programme run by Axminster Tools & Machinery, the first having taken place during 2013.

Jane steps aside

JANE Rockett has temporarily "stepped aside" from her position as chairman of Axminster Primary Academy Governors.

The school has been at the centre of controversy regarding their SATS results with the Standards and Testing Agency saying that students were over aided during the exam and have refused to reveal their scores.

When asked by Pulman's Weekly the reasons for temporarily stepping aside Mrs Rockett wouldn't give any further comment on the matter.

Poppy launch

THE Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal launch in Axminster proved to be a huge success raising over £450 for the charity.

The money raised came from a charity concert held in the Minster on October 24th.

The next RBL event will be a coffee morning on November 5th where bacon rolls, teas, coffee, cakes, tombola and books will be on sale, with all proceeds going to the RBL charity.

CHALLENGE ROB

Trying out everything B! HEALTH & FITNESS has to offer!

MY FOUR-WEEK challenge has now come to an end and what an amazing four weeks it has been! I went back in on Monday for a fitness test, which was exactly the same test I did in my first session four weeks ago. I'd had a really long, stressful day at work on Monday so wasn't feeling as fresh as normal but I absolutely amazed myself with how well I did.

As you can see from the table of results, adjacent to this column, I improved in every area. I was most pleased with the plank, which is a bit of a killer on the abs, where I almost doubled my time and the bike test where I managed to cover an extra kilometre in the 10 minute time period.

However, the most important changes were my body composition readings. Again, all the results can be seen on the adjacent table. I lost 0.8kg of weight, which may not seem significant until you look at the others. My body fat reduced significantly and my muscle mass increased, which means by body shape is changing for the better. So many people go horribly wrong by becoming fixated on their bathroom scales and obsessed by their weight, not their body fat. It's important to remember that a small amount of muscle weighs the same as a large amount of fat. My statistics from the last month prove that a combined exercise regime of resistance training and cardiovascular activity allows your body to burn away body fat and have better toned muscle underneath. I've already noticed that my clothes fit better and I've come in a notch on my belt!

My hydration levels went up by 1% as a result of drinking more water, which Craig would like me to improve further, but he said that 1% alone will support better concentration levels and the transportation of water soluble micro nutrients around my body, such as vitamins B and C.

My visceral fat (the fat in the internal abdominal cavity surrounding the vital organs) went down by 0.5%, which helps reduce the risk of certain diseases such as heart disease, high blood pressure and the onset of type 2 diabetes. This linked with all the other results meant that my metabolic age has reduced to 24... not bad for a 31 year old!

I am absolutely delighted with the results and the way I feel now. It was a high amount of activity that I was put through in those 4 weeks but it proves what can be done if you work hard, eat well and rest well! Before I started, although I didn't see myself as unhealthy, I was pretty lazy, really struggled to wake up in the mornings and felt a bit like I was past my best, especially since my knee injury. However, in just 4 weeks I have made a great improvement to a healthier version of myself and it feels amazing.

It genuinely has changed the person I am and it's something I'm now really motivated to continue with. I wake up in the mornings feeling good, when I eat I want to put the right nutrients into my body and I look forward to exercising and going to the gym a few times a week. I've really enjoyed the experience; it's not easy and requires a lot of hard work and effort but it's so rewarding and makes you feel fantastic. You are never too old and anyone can do it!

B! Health and Fitness is a brilliant place to train. All the staff are incredibly friendly, they treat everyone individually and work with you to help you achieve your fitness goals. There's no intimidation factor and there's a wonderful range of members all working hard to achieve their targets. I cannot recommend it highly enough. If you're thinking about wanting to lose body fat, improve your fitness, or change your body shape, don't hesitate to pay the club a visit, you won't regret it.

Sarah publishes her first poetry collection

WHEN Sarah Acton finally made the move to Beer it gave her the impetus to publish her first book of poetry.

'Ammonite', which she has published herself, is a beautifully written hymn of praise to the glory of the World Heritage Jurassic Coast where Sarah now lives and works.

"I had been visiting Beer from

by Kevin Fahey

my (previous) home in Bristol for the past five years but living here is different to just visiting," said Sarah.

"I feel at home by the sea. I love it here and moving to Beer has ignited a slow-burning desire to write this collection and the move has given me the time and space to produce it."

Sarah has drawn inspiration from her walks as she explores the area, discovering new sights all the time and observing how the weather and seasons impact upon the landscape.

"I thought I knew it after visiting Beer for five years but now I realise that it is not just the houses and buildings, it is much wider than that and there is so much to see," said Sarah.

"I am still an outsider but I am getting to know the place."

Sarah has also exercised great discipline to complete her collection of 23 poems, rising early to write for two hours between 6 and 8am each day for three months over the summer before heading off to work in Lyme

Regis where she is the administrator and marketing manager at the Marine Theatre.

"I have been writing for many years so to finally publish something is a very proud moment for me," explained Sarah.

"Poetry is a very personal thing and readers will either like it or not but I would love to hear what people think about them, although they may be too polite to say! I am braced for anything."

Sarah has initially published 50 copies of the book, priced at £3.50 and they are available to purchase from Beer Village Stores and Serendip book shop in Lyme Regis.

"I am only looking to cover my costs and if I could sell all 50 I would be thrilled to bits," said Sarah.

■ GIRL Guide units in and around Seaton are on the lookout for new leaders.

Potential new recruits are told it is a very enjoyable role, and are urged to get in touch as soon as possible.

Seaton Rainbow Leader Dawn Squire promoted the role by saying: "I think pretty much all leaders would agree that being a leader is fun, offers friendship, and lots of laughs.

"We all meet up from time to time at District/Division meetings — the last one was really entertaining and we only had coffee."

Keren Budden and Juliette from Colyton Rainbows added: "If you enjoy making things, playing games and eating, become a Rainbow Guider, a helper or just a Rainbow Guide."

Karen Dymott from Colyton Brownies said: "If you are aged from seven to 10 and enjoy crafts, play, carnival and are interested in working on your Brownie Adventure and working towards badges in a fun way, why not join Brownies.

"If you are an adult and interested in helping young girls learn, express themselves and enjoy volunteering, why not become a Brownie Leader or helper. Become a real part of your community and make a difference."

Donna Drew of 1st Uplyme Brownies has been involved for a long time and really enjoys it, saying: "I have been helping with Uplyme Brownies for eight years — it's lovely seeing girls from grow in confidence and learn, knowing you have been a part of that."

"Volunteering can be very rewarding and is appreciated in our village."

Anyone interested in finding out more is should call Jane on 01297 23409 or Julie on 01297 32342.

Coastal runner Wayne in Seaton

ENERGETIC coast runner Wayne Russell was met by a fellow athlete after ticking Seaton off his list on Saturday, October 17th.

Wayne is running the coast of Great Britain and met up with Seaton resident Linda Pritchard, who herself had run the coast of the UK in 1989.

Linda said: "What Wayne is

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk doing is remarkable. Having run the coast myself I know how tough it is.

"When I did my run I had a back-up vehicle to carry all the items I needed for the run.

"Wayne will be running unsupported and has to carry everything with him in an incredibly heavy rucksack, which contains many things including a tent and sleeping bag.

"He is camping in the open and using public restrooms on his journey. His reasons for the doing the run is truly altruistic."

Wayne started his run in September from Greenwich in London, and is running in a clockwise direction around Britain more than 5,000 miles, keeping as close to the coast as possible.

He is raising funds for the Superhero Foundation in memory of his sister, Carmel Webb, who died at the age of 35 on New Year's Eve 2013, after a ten-year-long battle with a rare heart condition.

Wayne said: "The aim of the run is to raise money for, The Superhero Foundation, but also inspire others, in the same way others have inspired me to do this in the first place."

To read more about Wayne's journey and the charity he is running for go to waynerussell.org, <http://superherofoundation.org> and www.facebook.com/mrwaynerussell

Women's Institutes ROUND UP

SEATON

MEMBERS of Seaton WI met on a bright, sunny afternoon on October 20th.

After singing "Jerusalem", there followed a short period of reflection to remember Heather Marraner, a much-loved, long-standing member of the institute, who died recently at home.

President Denise England gave a short report on the autumn council meeting held in Plymouth on October 14th. Highlights of the day had included a presentation by Dame Esther Rantzen explaining how she established "The Silver Line", a charity for older people who feel lonely and isolated. This was followed in the afternoon by guest speaker, Julie Summers, the author of "Jambusters", which the television drama "Home Fires" was based on.

Two teams of four members will be attending the quiz held by Beer WI on November 12th. Secretary Margaret Nicholas distributed the menus for the New Year Lunch to be held in January at The Harbour Hotel, Sidmouth.

The results of the Flower of the Month competition were: 1st Christine Palacio, 2nd Sheila Rumble, and 3rd Ann Attridge. The general competition results (a favourite autumn poem) were as follows: 1st Aimee Guard, 2nd Ann Attridge and 3rd Gwynydd Brazendale.

After refreshments, there followed a fascinating talk by Margaret Barnes about her working life as a barrister in London's Crown Courts. She explained the history of the garments worn by the profession and gave interesting details about some of the cases she had been involved with.

The next meeting will be held on November 17th, 2.15pm at Seaton Methodist Church Small Hall, and new members are very welcome to attend.

AXMOUTH

PPRESIDENT Debise Gates welcomed everyone to the October meeting of Axmouth WI, and introduced guest speaker Annette Wale, from Ferne Animal Sanctuary near Chard.

Members learned that the charity was started by the late Nina Douglas-Hamilton, Duchess of Hamilton, at the beginning of the Second World War when she appealed to people on the BBC to take in pets which had been abandoned while their owners were away at war, or had to move away.

On returning to her home, a variety of cats, dogs and a parrot were waiting to be rehomed, much to her surprise. She set about building the necessary stables for them and, on her death, a new sanctuary was bought near Chard in 1975.

Ferne is open daily (except Christmas Day and New Year's Day). Over 300 animals live there and some are available for rehoming. As well as dogs, cats, geese, horses, chipmunks and a wide variety of animals, there are guided tours, nature trails, a children's play area and the site is wheelchair friendly with a restaurant offering meals.

Volunteers are always welcome to walk the dogs, cuddle the cats or muck out the stables.

The WI book club meets every six weeks at the Ship Inn, Axmouth, and the next choice is Stella Rimmington's "Rip Tide". The food and craft group made beautiful beaded bracelets and showed them to members. Their next meeting is November 2nd when they will be making decorated bottle boxes.

Result for the competition for a furry animal were as follows: 1st Sue Barnard, 2nd Alison Morris, 3rd Hilary Mabon. Flower of the Month results: 1st Norma Sweetland, 2nd Hilary Mabon, 3rd Pat Tresize.

The next meeting is a belly dancing event on November 17th.

HONITON AFTERNOON

HONITON Afternoon WI hosted the annual group meeting for other branches around the area on October 23rd.

The six WIs within the group presented their annual reports after which Dr Ward, a well known local GP gave a very interesting and well illustrated account of his life as a GP.

A buffet was enjoyed by all followed by entertainment from Bill Murray, a fine singer and musician from Dartmoor, who amused everyone with his songs and fascinating tales of old Devon.

The next meeting will be held in Honiton Methodist Hall on November 9th, 2pm, when David Baldock will be talking about "Gardens to Enjoy".

Modern ideas at flower club meeting

Colyford and District Flower Club were given a beautiful demonstration on Tuesday, October 6th at Colyford Memorial Hall by Sue (Kehoe) Griffiths, from Cullompton.

She started by talking about new ideas and trends that were coming into flower arranging now and, with this in mind, her first demonstration was "burnished lustre of metals and burnishing beauty". With a tall vase she had covered with cardboard, she had glued twigs, copper wire, fabric and leaves, then sprayed on gold lustre which made a very attractive container. Then came the flowers; starting with old man's beard to cover her oasis, she added orange spray carnations, skimmia, red lilies, small kaffir lilies and dyed rabillia creating a glowing fire, adding some small blue iris and Verona in the flame which added to its charm.

Next came a large wreath constructed of wood, thick cabbage stalks and midollino sticks. These were sprayed lime green and along with this foliage, calla lilies and green roses depicted "force of energy" and the detox diet.

Following on with a structure of twigs placed in a flat piece of wood, Sue did a very modern arrangement in a small piece of oasis tucked in the middle using yellow carnations and rust-coloured chrysanthemums and autumn leaves, then tied on some test tubes with a gloriosa peach lily in each and some copper wire wound round in places onto the twigs. She completed it all with a rubus in a heart shape to surround the whole arrangement.

After that, members were taken to "Pirates of the Caribbean, the curse of the Black Pearl". On top of a tall wooden candlestick, Sue had once again burnished it with gold and used huge palm leaves to one side and complemented with big gold fatsia leaves the other side. In the middle she filled with pineapple leaves, rubus, red gloriosa rose, some red heuchera, pink lily, an orange lily and finished with a rose named for the Duchess of Cornwall. To complement it all had a couple of huge feathers on the top.

Next was a traditional Dutch master and Sue used a blue-patterned urn swathed with blue fabric and filled with plants and flowers of the four seasons. Her inspiration came from "The Girl with a Pearl Earring", and to add to this Sue's husband had painted a picture depicting this.

Lastly, members were taken to the "Kingdom of Fairies" and the Royal Ballet with a very tall structure swathed in black netting to depict the dark fairy in "Sleeping Beauty". It had winter forsythia, lace ivy and hederia around the design and rich dark ruby red gladoli, black penstemon, burgundy carnations and roses, plus a wand on either side, then came two smaller arrangements placed on curved woven structures to match.

The competition was won in the intermediate class by Carol Hubbard, 2nd Penny Grant, and the advanced won by Jean Underdown, 2nd Angie Clark, 3rd Sheila Clare. The next meeting is the AGM on November 3rd, followed by another meeting on December 3rd, the title of which will be "Lets Celebrate" by Pat Penno from Launceston. The competition for those who would like to enter will be "A Christmas Candlestick" arrangement.

Talk on auctioneering for heritage association

THE members and guests of the Axe Valley Heritage Association were treated to an interesting and informative talk on auctioneering and valuation at their last meeting at the United Reformed Church Hall, Seaton.

The talk, given by local auctioneer and businessman Roger Woolland, dealt with his many years in the business, and included tales of dealing with TV personalities in such programmes as "Antiques Roadshow", "Flog It" and "Antiques Roadtrip".

Roger brought along six valuable items that he had acquired over the years and asked each member of the audience to estimate their value. At the end of the evening Roger described each one in some detail and advised of their authenticated value. He then awarded a bottle of wine to the person who was nearest the correct figure in each case.

This was the last talk for the 2015 season, further talks will be arranged for the 2016 season, commencing in April.

New information board installed at Wetlands

MEMBERS of the Axe Vale and District Conservation Society (AV&DCS) have been celebrating the installation of a new information board at the Borrow Pit Nature Reserve in Seaton Wetlands.

The new addition gives visitors an insight into the history and wildlife of the site with a map, illustrations and information.

The nature reserve is a great place to see birds such as kingfishers, it has a pond dipping platform, seating and a section of easy access path.

The information board was designed by Mike Hughes, a freelance designer, installed by East Devon District Council's countryside team Tuesday volunteers.

A legacy fund from the late Derek Ord-Smith, a previous treasurer of the society for many years, helped pay for the production of the board.

Martin Drake, chairman of AV&DCS, said: "We are really pleased with this new addition to the reserve, it gives clear information and provides a great introduction to the site."

"Thank you to all those who have been involved in this project and we encourage everyone to come and explore this site."

The Borrow Pit is managed by members of the AV&DCS in partnership with the East Devon's countryside team.

It can be found through Hillymead, off Colyford Road, Seaton and the car park is next to the water works.

For more information about the work of the AV&DCS visit www.axevaleconservation.org.uk or contact Martin Drake on 01460 220650.

Council's 'negligence' over road safety must not continue

I HAVE been given information that the safety of members of the public walking from Seaton to the Wetlands was never given any consideration during the planning procedure.

Most people who walk there know that the last quarter mile is quite dangerous with no pavement to walk on.

Parents of primary school children who walk to the Wetlands from the school may be assured that the safety procedures are adhered to at all times, and this is what they do. From Gravel Lane single file is a must, leading the way is a senior assistant accompanied by two more assistants all wearing high visibility jackets.

After passing Rosedale Terrace and half a dozen cars, they continue for about 60 yards until they reach a telegraph pole on the left, where everyone comes to a halt. One assistant then looks to see if the road is clear, if it is she crosses over to the other side and walks about 40 yards to the cemetery entrance where she has a clear view of the road looking towards Colyton, and also checks the road backwards to Seaton. If the road is clear, she will give the command that it's alright to cross over and continue, and that's the way it's done.

Council authorities have an inherent duty of care for the safety of members of the public. So East Devon District Council, get it sorted. Your negligence must not be allowed to continue.

MR M. TURNER,
Scalwell Mead, Seaton

Thank you to Re-Ablement Service

MAY I use your newspaper to thank the ladies of the Re-Ablement Service for their care since I was discharged from hospital. I understand that the service is not widely known about.

The Social Care Re-Ablement Service is run by Devon County Council Social Services. It is designed to help people get back on their feet and regain their confidence following time in hospital.

Help is given with personal things like showering and dressing (not housework). Patients are assessed while in hospital and staff will arrange for an assessment based on physical needs and the home situation.

I am sure I have progressed quicker with the help I have received, and an added bonus is a cheery face and chat while the help is being given.

Well done Re-Ablement, and many thanks.

J.ROSS,
All Saints

Send your letters to Francesca Evans at Pulman's View From Newspaper, Unit 3 St Michael's Business Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis, Dorset DT7 3DB or email them to francesca@pemedial.co.uk. The views expressed in letters are those of the author and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Axminster people proven their kindness

MAY I through your paper thank Les Bounds for organising the event held at Axminster Football Club on October 17th.

With the support of the club, Mother's Ruin band, Graham Barton, local businesses and all who attended and helped on the evening, they raised £1,080 for Hospiscare.

I think that anyone that has had personal experience of the work of Hospiscare appreciates how marvellous the charity is. So thanks to all concerned as the money will go towards maintaining the service of Hospiscare in our area.

Yet again Axminster people have shown how generous and kind they can be. Thanks.

LIZ PURVEY,
Secretary, Axminster & District Hospiscare Support Group

Colyton Cubs looking for new leader

DID you think all those fun activities you enjoyed in your younger days are behind you? Think again!

Colyton Scout Group is looking for leaders to run its Cub Scout section. The leadership team in the Cub section provides boys and girls aged between eight and 10 and a half with an opportunity to have fun and learn new skills whilst taking part in many adventurous activities and weekend camps. Providing everyday adventure is what the cubs do, and quite often the leaders join in.

No experience is necessary. The Scout group will provide fun, friendship and adventure, along with a free uniform and free on-going training including nationally recognised qualifications such as first aid and safeguarding.

New leaders will have the opportunity to make a positive contribution to the local community and provide life-changing opportunities to the young people in it. Volunteering in Scouting can provide opportunities for travel and adventures throughout the UK and internationally.

Advertiser Announcement

Arthritis? or is he just getting old?

OSTEOARTHRITIS is a chronic, degenerative joint disease that makes movement difficult and painful; mainly affecting pets in their middle and senior years, although younger animals may be affected too.

It can be heart breaking to see your once lively, active best friend start to limp, or feel pain when moving around. There is no cure for osteoarthritis. However, if treated promptly, there is a great deal that you and your vet can do to decrease your pets discomfort and increase their mobility; keeping them active and happy into old age. Early warning signs include:

- Difficulty walking, and an overall decrease in mobility and activity (especially playing).
- Resting more than usual
- Slowness in getting up from a lying position
- Dogs may 'bunny hop' using their back legs, rather than walk normally
- Cats may fail to groom themselves, eat less and lose weight.
- Slow, stiff movement when walking after a rest, or in cold weather
- Limping and/or swollen joints that may be warm to the touch
- Licking or biting joints
- Behavioural or personality changes

What causes osteoarthritis?

There are many causes of osteoarthritis, but the main reasons are;

- Injury to joint
- 'Wear and tear'
- Obesity, an excessive load put onto joints
- Developmental defects that alters joint shape
- Genetic, some breeds of dog are more prone than others

Whatever the specific cause, stress on a joint can begin a destructive cycle of inflammation of the joint area and damage to cartilage that leads to pain for your pet.

How is osteoarthritis treated?

Treatment includes 3 main components, each are equally important.

Weight control; Dogs or cats that suffer from chronic pain caused by conditions like osteoarthritis often become inactive, which can result in obesity. Controlling your pets weight will lighten the load on arthritic joints and make it less difficult to move around. Weight loss for animals involves both a well-balanced, calorie reduced diet and regular exercise. Exercise is essential because it contributes to strengthening the muscles that support the joints. A daily, moderate amount of low impact exercise also improves joint mobility and can help get a lethargic, arthritic pet active again. Dogs will benefit from activities such as walking and swimming.

Cats will benefit from play that keeps them moving without excessive jumping.

Treatment

Anti-inflammatory drugs; a group of drugs that reduce the inflammation in the joints, thus relieving pain, increasing mobility, and protecting the joint from further damage.

Newer drugs are proving to be especially effective in reducing inflammation and pain to improve mobility without significant side effects. As well as the anti-inflammatory drugs there are a group of drugs called nutraceuticals, these are made of substances that help the joints remain lubricated and can even help reduce the inflammation within the joint itself.

Access to a hydrotherapy pool, acupuncture and physiotherapy, may also be beneficial to many arthritic patients.

If you notice any of the signs listed, don't just think your pet is 'slowing down with age', Take him along to see the vet. The faster osteoarthritis is first diagnosed and treated, the better your pets' quality of life will be.

All the rooms are staffed by educators specialising in that particular age range and are light, bright, air conditioned and well resourced, full of toys.

Sunny Days also offers a new outdoor facility which contains a grass area for the children to experiment with gardening as well as a quiet discovery section. The outdoor facility also has an undercover section so that children can be active outdoor learners in all weathers.

The nursery which has been set up by April Edwards with the help of pre-school veteran Tanya James recognise the importance of fresh air and that some children prefer learning and playing outside. Sunny Days boasts a huge area for bikes, trikes and running around on a soft landing brightly coloured surface.

Sunny Days has several selling points which sets it apart from other nurseries. Playdome has an extensive play frame for the nursery children to have sole use of twice a day and allows children to develop their fine and gross motor skills, during time the Playdome is closed to the public. Freshly cooked food will also be provided for the children with breakfast and lunch served during the opening times of 8am to 6pm, with a specially prepared menu promoting fresh and healthy food. Our caring staff want mums and dads to leave the nursery with their babies fed, changed and their last bottle of the day made up ready to go home so all they have to do is enjoy their babies.

About The Legion

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION is the UK's leading Armed Forces charity.

They provide practical, emotional and financial support to all members of the British Armed Forces past and present, and their families.

The Legion actively campaign to improve their lives and safeguard the Military Covenant between the nation and its Armed Forces.

They also organise the Poppy Appeal, run one of the UK's largest membership organisations and are recognised as the nation's custodian of Remembrance.

The Royal British Legion's mission is to provide welfare, comradeship, representation and Remembrance for the Armed Forces Community.

Royal British Legion Services

WHETHER it's families coping with the loss of a loved one, help at home to adapt to independent living, recovery centres for injured personnel, money and careers advice or residential care: The Royal British Legion are here to help.

Millions of people in the UK and around the world are eligible to access the welfare services and the RBL aim to help the most in need.

As the legacy of Afghanistan and Iraq combine with defence cuts, strains on public sector support and a peak in welfare demand from older veterans; the Service community is facing a perfect storm of health and welfare needs in the coming years. The Royal British Legion is here to support them.

Who the Royal British Legion help

THE Royal British Legion help serving members of the Royal Navy, Army and Royal Air Force, and they also help Ex-Service men and women, their carers and families.

Millions of people in the UK and overseas are eligible to call on the Legion for help. Their aim is to help the 500,000 most in need. Half the people we help are below retirement age.

The Nation Remembers

REMEMBRANCE is part of modern British life, culture and heritage. It becomes a particular feature of the public calendar on or about Remembrance Sunday and November 11th, Armistice Day, each year. This is when public, private, formal and informal Remembrance events take place throughout the UK.

Millions of people each year stop what they are doing and observe a Two Minute Silence at 11am on the 11th day of the 11th month, commemorating the original Armistice of 1918 which signalled the 'stilling of arms' and led to the formal end to the First World War (eventually signed in 1919).

When we bow our heads in reflection, we remember those who fought for our freedom during the two World Wars. But we also mourn and honour those who have lost their lives in more recent conflicts. Today, with troops on duty in Afghanistan and other trouble spots around the world, Remembrance, and the two minute tribute, are as important as ever.

Remembrance Sunday

REMEMBRANCE Sunday, the second Sunday in November, is the day traditionally put aside to remember all those who have given their lives for the peace and freedom we enjoy today. On this day people across the nation pause to reflect on the sacrifices made by our brave Service men and women.

Remembrance Sunday will fall on Sunday, November 8th 2015.

POPPY APPEAL

LIVE ON

TO THE MEMORY OF THE FALLEN
AND THE FUTURE OF THE LIVING

11th November 2015 Wear your poppy with pride

Poppies for Remembrance

MCCRAE'S poem in turn inspired an American academic, Moina Michael to make handmade red silk poppies which were then brought to England by a French lady, Anna Guerin. The (Royal) British Legion, formed in 1921, ordered 9 million of the poppies which they sold on 11 November that year. The poppies sold out almost immediately and that first ever 'Poppy Appeal' raised over £106,000, a huge amount of money at the time.

The following year, Major George Howson, who had received the Military Cross for his role in the First World War, set up a factory off the Old Kent Road in London where five disabled ex-Servicemen began making poppies. 3 years later the Poppy Factory moved to its current site in Richmond, Surrey and today produces millions of poppies each year.

Such was the demand for poppies in England in 1922 that few were reaching Scotland. Earl Haig's wife established the 'Lady Haig Poppy Factory' in Edinburgh to produce poppies exclusively for Scotland. Over 5 million Scottish poppies (which have four petals and no leaf unlike poppies in the rest of the UK) are still made by hand by disabled ex-Servicemen at Lady Haig's Poppy Factory each year.

The story of the Poppy

DURING the First World War (1914–1918) much of the fighting took place in Western Europe. Previously beautiful countryside was blasted, bombed and fought over, again and again. The landscape swiftly turned to fields of mud, bleak and barren scenes where little or nothing could grow.

Bright red Flanders poppies (Papaver rhoeas) however, were delicate but resilient flowers and grew in their thousands, flourishing even in the middle of chaos and destruction. In the spring of 1915, shortly after losing a friend in Ypres, a Canadian doctor, Lt Col John McCrae was inspired by the sight of poppies to write a now famous poem called "In Flanders Fields".

#MYPOPPY

The Royal British Legion is calling for people to share why they wear their poppy using the hashtag #MyPoppy

TV STAR Millie Mackintosh, 26, modeled a dress made with red poppies to launch the #MyPoppy campaign. The unique dress was custom-made for Mackintosh by British fashion designer Giles Deacon, 46, whose original sketch took 72 hours to turn into a luxur wool black dress lined with 100 red silk poppies.

Hundreds of celebrities are set to take to social media to share why they wear a poppy in an effort to inspire the public to do the same. Stars from British sport, music, fashion, entertainment and business have all pledged their support for our #MyPoppy campaign as part of this year's Poppy Appeal.

Last year the Poppy Appeal – the biggest cash collection in Europe – raised over £45 million for The Royal British Legion's ongoing support for those serving in the British Armed Forces, veterans and their families.

We're telling some of our amazing stories behind the poppy throughout the Appeal and are urging everyone to share why they wear their poppy using the hashtag #MyPoppy.

Millie Mackintosh wears her poppy to remember her great-grandfather, Lieutenant Douglas Mackintosh, who fought in the First World War.

Now it's your turn! Tell your #MyPoppy story on Facebook @OfficialPoppyLegion, on Twitter @PoppyLegion and on Instagram @RoyalBritishLegion.

IN FRONT of an audience of supporters, trustees and the Remembrance Centre project team at the National Memorial Arboretum in Staffordshire, Sea Cadet Beth Molyneux shared her moving poem explaining why she wears a poppy in memory of her father.

▲ Beth's father, Lieutenant Commander Ian Molyneux, was shot and killed on board HMS Astute as it was docked in Southampton in April 2011. His name is engraved on the Armed Forces Memorial at the National Memorial Arboretum.

Why Do You Wear a Poppy Beth?

"Why do you wear a Poppy Beth?" my friend asked, "I'd like to know... You are too young to remember, the wars from long ago!"

I smiled the biggest smile, As big, as big can be, To show just what my poppy, Really means to me.

As I began to tell her, I stood all nice and tall, And remembered what my Daddy said, When I was very small.

You see, my Daddy was a sailor, He sailed beneath the sea, And when he was on his submarine, He was as happy as can be.

My Daddy used to tell me, "Bethie...wear your Poppy with PRIDE, It's to send love to our force And remember those that died.

When people see your poppy Beth, They'll see how proud you are, To remember all those fighting, For our country, near and far".

I am only 10-years-old, But it's so important that I know, They were fighting for our freedom, In the wars so long ago.

It is because of their sacrifice, That we are free, you see, To proudly fly our Union flag, For all the world to see.

And it's because of those still fighting, In wars across the world, That I can sleep safely in my bed, Free from any cares.

Lots of those out fighting, To keep our country free, Are brave Mummies and Daddies, Of children, just like me.

It's why it's so important, Whilst they are fighting hard, To look after all the children, And keep them safe from harm.

Because, these children are the future, Of the country in which we live, The very country our armed forces, Are fighting to protect.

There's another special reason, That I wear my Poppy with pride, It's because my Daddy, my hero, Bravely gave his life.

He wasn't away in a foreign land, He was on his submarine, Protecting the boat and her crew, In the name of Her Majesty the Queen.

Now my Daddy is an angel, In heaven up above, With all the others that have died, For the country that they love.

So when I wear my poppy, So proudly on my chest, It's there to show our forces Really are the best.

It's to remember all those people, Who gave their lives for our today, And for my brave Daddy, my hero, Who in my heart will always stay.

My friend listened to my story, And then quietly said, "I'd like to get a Poppy, To pin onto my chest.

So I too can wear it proudly, For all the world to see, So I too will always remember, The reason I am free!"

WONDEROUS things are afoot at the Beehive, and now we have our 10 year lease we can plan for the future with security. This also means we can now apply for funding to help with the last bit of kit to enable us to provide live screenings of some stunning shows, exhibitions and opera in Honiton, so watch this space!

Things are frantically busy with classes, room bookings, rehearsals and all sorts of other things going on besides our weekly cinema and shows.

We also have some new recruits who have joined our terrific team of volunteers and we have open arms for anymore friendly folk!

There are some great movies coming up, with Meryl Streep starring as a straight talking, rock chick on Friday, November 6th in 'Ricki & the Flash'.

An evening with the Warhorse songman

BOB FOX has played the role of songman in WarHorse for the past three years, both in the West End and currently in the UK/Ireland and South Africa touring production.

Join him as he performs the songs from the multi award winning smash hit WarHorse, with additional material from his own personal repertoire – a number of stories and songs built up from his forty year career in the music industry.

This event is a great opportunity to see one of the finest exponents of storytelling through song.

Since the early seventies Bob Fox has lovingly developed his skills in the performance of folk song in all its various forms. Hailing from County Durham in the North East of England – his music is deeply influenced by the working class culture and industrial folk song from that area.

Bob has toured extensively throughout the world including the UK, Europe, USA, New Zealand and Australia, performing both as a solo artist and alongside musical heavyweights such as Stu Luckley, Ralph McTell, Billy Mitchell and Fairport Convention.

Twice nominated as Folk Singer of the Year at the BBC Folk Awards,

Bob has long been a favourite on the live circuit. This new tour will offer Bob's large and loyal fanbase the first chance in over eighteen months to enjoy his warm rich voice and virtuoso finger-style guitar talent with witty banter thrown in for good measure.

Bob is performing at Colyford Memorial Hall on Wednesday, November 11th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £10 and are available from Colyford Post Office or on 01297 553710. All profits are going to the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal.

Adam Sweet to play Old Inn Bonfire night

THE OLD INN at Kilminster is hosting its annual Bonfire night celebrations, this will be the 6th year that the Old Inn has hosted the event. The evening starts with the bars opening at 6pm with a range of real ales all at £3 per pint. Sausage and Mash is served from a hot buffet in the skittle alley and music is provided this year by Adam Sweet.

It's a great night of Bangers and Mash with a variety of sausages available, the kids can get involved too with sparklers and soup is served for those who need really warming up.

No bonfire is lit, the pub has after all got to look after its brand new thatch, but fireworks are a must and are set off from 9pm in the field at the rear of the pub. Parking is available and there is more parking in the village. Entrance is free and it is hoped everybody will enjoy the discounted ales and sausage supper before enjoying the fireworks.

It promises to be a very enjoyable night, more details can be found online at www.oldinnkilminster.co.uk

Bonnie Tyler with a side order of hummus: the weird and wonderful touring life of Theatre Rush

"AMAZING THINGS can happen in village halls. People who would never get to London can see something wonderful, pulled out of a little suitcase, right in the heart of their village."

Katie Villa of all-female theatre trio Theatre Rush, is explaining why she loves to tour village halls. This November, her company will visit Stockland with their show "The Lost Tales of Devon" and they can't wait. The show, featuring the story-gathering characters Martha, Gurt and Freddie, is billed as a "riotous, hilarious, heart-warming show for all humans with an imagination". It's a theatre piece made up of stories the actors have unearthed in numerous Devon villages. Audiences contribute their own stories live, bringing a degree of anarchy that makes every performance unique.

"The stories we have found are total crackers. Much better than you'd find on Google! We love the little bit of risk that comes with handing the reins over to the audience. That said, one particular community were having such a hoot that we almost couldn't get them to stop!"

Theatre Rush has previously toured sell out show Flushed (4 stars in EXEUNT), about being female in the modern world, so what inspired them to create a story about stories?

"We are, all of us, made up of stories. Stories follow us around, we tell them, we create the stories of ourselves and we get involved in other people's stories. The stories of us will last much longer than us on the earth. That is something very special, in our humble opinions. We aim to create an event where the whole village can come together, laugh (alot), cry (a bit, maybe from laughing) and to feel part of something."

Katie's fellow performer, Chloe Whipple, curates and supports emerging artists at Exeter's Bike Shed Theatre. All of Theatre Rush live in Exeter, so the actors are excited to do a tour on home turf and to unearth new aspects of Devon. Theatre Rush is a company that passionately believes in rural touring.

"These halls are owned and loved by the community, so it's a bit like coming into somebody's front room. Although sometimes you're trying to hang your lights and a merry band of 'helpers' descend to tell you 'you're doing it all wrong', and 'where's the biscuits then?' and 'are we going to like this show, then? But we don't let that put us off!"

Their shows this November are only made possible through the organisation Villages in Action, which brings world-class acts to Devon doorsteps through carefully managed funding.

"Everybody should be able to access great performance. It would be a great, great shame for everything to implode back towards London again" says Katie.

So how does a professional actor prepare for a night of ad-libbing and anarchy at the end of country lane? Katie, Chloe and Lizzie have worked out a special formula: "Total Eclipse of the Heart". Played loud in the car. And a lot of hummus!"

To buy tickets for Lost Tales of Devon at 7pm, Friday, November 6th at the Stockland Hall, Stockland, call 01404 881 207.

What's Happening at Ilminster Arts Centre this November

IT'S THE PENULTIMATE month of the year but we're not running out of steam at IAC! Our programme is just as exciting and varied as ever. In the Gallery the Neroche Artists are showcasing their latest works, in a range of media, including prints, sculpture and paintings. Come and admire the work of these talented local artists. Our well stocked Craft Shop is packed with all sorts of attractive and unusual artefacts, handmade by Somerset artisans, and the perfect place to find a unique Christmas present. If you are considering making your own festive gifts, we have several workshops, starting with Mixed Media Mosaics on Friday 13th and followed by Felting on Friday 20th, and Rag Rugs on Friday 27. On Thursday, November 26th, quilting expert K3n (whose work featured in the hugely popular Mapping Evolution exhibition last month) will lead a new workshop revealing the art of Fabric Fusion. The latest instalment of Belinda Ireland's children's Art Chest! takes place on Saturday 7th - this is a great opportunity for youngsters who want to explore different media and techniques with a professional artist.

The evenings are dark now but at IAC they are anything but dull. On Friday 6th we celebrate words spoken and sung in A Way with Words; this is a participatory event, so if you have a poem, song or short story that you would like to share, please let us know. If you are shy about performing, we can even arrange someone to go on stage for you! The musicality continues on November 13th with a

Concerts in the West performance featuring the soulful violin of Sophie Rosa, one of the UK's most exciting young violinists, accompanied by Simon Lane on piano. Josh Kemp brings his talented quartet to IAC on the 15th for a Sunday performance of mellow jazz to ease us into the week. On Monday 16th the jazz jammers reconvene for an informal improv session - if you play an instrument, come and join the jam! The tempo takes a turn for the quicker on Sat 21 when we welcome the fast and furious gypsy jazz of award-winning Dutch violinist Tim Kliphuis and his trio. The show, 'Django Delight', has been described as 'breathtaking' so this is a hot ticket with advance booking advised! Ilminster's Victorian Evening on Fri 27th is another unmissable event and the Arts Centre will be getting in festive mood with delicious mince pies, mulled wine and other delicious hot drinks for you to enjoy and entertainment by the Fairey Family Singers. We look forward to seeing you soon.

HAWKSBRIDGE ESTATE AGENTS ARE DELIGHTED TO OFFER THIS SPACIOUS AXMINSTER FLAT TO THE MARKET

THE Cellar is a well presented ground floor apartment, part of a converted period building in a peaceful, tucked away location in the centre of the town. The property sits on Pig Lane which contains a number of period buildings and is conveniently positioned right in the heart of the busy market town of Axminster, only a minute or so walk from the towns many amenities.

The property is accessed from the graveled shared parking area via steps down to its own individual entrance through a wooden stable door. Notable features of The Cellar include a modern en-suite shower room and wc leading from the Master Bedroom which boasts excellent in-built storage. The sitting room is of an excellent size and in good decorative order and the kitchen is modern and well fitted, again spacious and in keeping with the rest of the apartment.

The second bedroom is of a good double size in neutral decorative order. Period features abound in The Cellar, it has the charm of a bygone era with modern upgrades and finishing.

What the Vendors Say

"We have lived in this flat and more recently have rented it out and it has proved to be a popular property appealing to a broad range of people. During our ownership we have updated the kitchen, bathrooms and gas central heating. We love the fact we can walk to all the amenities nearby. The allocated parking is an added bonus and we have spent many a sunny morning sitting on the outside terrace area."

The Hawksbridge View

"The Cellar is a hidden treasure. Behind its unassuming façade is an extremely spacious leasehold flat with a superb sitting room and well thought out kitchen. The allocated parking space and central location make The Cellar a definite one to consider for both investors and owner occupiers alike"

We would highly recommend viewing this property - please contact Hawksbridge Estate Agents on 01297 255025 or e-mail us a sales@hawksbridge.co

Drivers urged to prepare their cars for winter

WITH winter on its way, Motor Codes, the government-approved consumer watchdog for the automotive industry, is urging motorists to 'winter-proof' their cars. Its online winter driving tips will help drivers to ensure their vehicles are prepared for winter driving conditions, and help avoid expensive repairs.

Bill Fennell, Managing Director, Motor Codes, said, "Winter doesn't officially begin until 21 December this year, but there is no time like the present to ensure that antifreeze is topped up, tyres and brakes are working well and your windscreen is clear."

"Drivers needn't wait for an official Met Office warning. If they follow our winter driving tips, their cars will be winter-ready – and this will make journeys safer for them, their passengers and other road users. Whatever the forecast for winter, drivers need to be able to rely on their cars and make them as safe as possible."

Here are Motor Codes' top 10 tips to winter-proofing your car:

1. Top up antifreeze

It's an obvious tip, but you'd be amazed by the number of people who fail to maintain the right level of antifreeze in their vehicle. Without adequate antifreeze, sub-zero temperatures can do untold damage to your engine. Your manual will tell you the best type of antifreeze for your car and the amount you should use. Safety first! Never replenish fluids (oil, coolant, wiper fluid) straight after you've driven the car – wait until it's cooled down.

2. Make sure your windscreen is clear

In the winter, spray, grit and slush can obscure the view through your windscreen and compromise your safety. Your windscreen wipers and washer fluid are the only defence against this. So make sure the wipers are working smoothly and don't leave streaks, and that the washer fluid is always topped up.

Keep a supply of washer fluid, ideally mixed with de-icer, in the boot. Don't be tempted to replenish the fluid compartment with water and washing-up liquid – you'll end up with a fogged-up windscreen.

Other road-users need to be able to see you, so check that all your driving lights (including foglights) are working properly and wipe them clean once a week.

3. Keep your battery charged

Your car battery works harder during the winter months: the heating's on full-blast, de-misters are working overtime and, because of the shorter daylight hours, headlights are on for longer. As if that's not enough, cold temperatures also reduce the battery's capacity. It's important you know the health of your battery – the last thing you want is to be met by silence the next time you try to turn on the engine.

4. Check your tyres

Balding tyres are a safety hazard at any time, but in winter the risks of an accident are even greater. So make sure that all four tyres have the safe amount of tread. Legally, the depth of the tread must be at least 1.6mm but, for peace of mind, 2–3mm is recommended. You may even want to invest in a set of winter tyres, particularly if you live in a rural or hilly area.

5. Test your brakes

The roads are wetter and more slippery in winter than at any other time of the year, so it's vital that your brakes are up to the task. Some newer cars are fitted with sensors that will tell you when the brakes need replacing. Otherwise, you can ask your local garage to test your brake pads, discs and pipes.

6. Protect your car body

Nothing ages your car body quicker than exposure to the grit and salt sprinkled on the roads in the winter. Prevention is definitely better than cure when it comes to keeping corrosion at bay, so wash and wax your car before the harsh weather sets in. If you have to park outside during the winter months, consider buying a good quality car cover.

7. Replace belts and hoses

Cold temperatures can weaken the rubber belts and hoses under your car's bonnet, and you don't want something to snap out on the road on a cold winter's night. Although in most cases they get checked at service time every 30,000 miles or so, it's always a good idea to let a mechanic give them a once-over before the first cold snap arrives, as there may be potential weak points susceptible to the cold weather.

8. Don't run the tank empty

In sub-zero temperatures, your fuel-line may freeze up meaning that your car won't start. You can prevent this simply by making sure your fuel tank is always more than half-full.

9. Keep an emergency kit

Keep an emergency kit in your car in case you break down and find yourself stuck out in the cold. Your kit should include boots, blankets, torch and batteries, first aid kit, jump leads, shovel, road atlas, de-icer and sunglasses (winter sun can be dazzling).

10. Get a timely service

You can address many of these winter-proofing tips in one go by paying a visit to your local garage. Many now offer special winter checks, including ensuring tyres are in good condition, mechanical parts are lubricated and essential lubricants topped up. Remember that keeping up-to-date with the recommended service schedule will help keep your car in good condition all year round – and protect any warranty.

If you're in doubt about whether your car is winter-ready, check out Motor Codes' handy infographic guide at www.motorcodes.co.uk/wintertips. You can also use the site's garage finder to search for a local garage to help give you peace of mind.

Local Sport – football round-up

Gribble double sees Beer stun Fenny
Tigers tamed at Teignmouth – Mixed weekend for Millwey

TEIGNMOUTH 5 AXMINSTER TOWN 1
SW Peninsula League D1 (E)
IN-FORM Axminster travelled to Teignmouth keen to test themselves against opposition who had only lost one game so far this season.

Unfortunately, the Tigers just didn't turn up. They were slow in starting and fell behind after ten minutes when they didn't show enough urgency to prevent a cross from the left which found its target and it was put in the back of the net.

It got worse as they then went two down when a lack of communication allowed a Teignmouth forward to get between Axminster goalkeeper Scott Wells-Burr and one of his defenders to roll the ball into an empty net.

The Tigers did, however, get back into the game when Liam Cleal was upended in the box and top-scorer Jon Hurford scored the resulting penalty for his ninth goal of the season.

But just before the break they didn't deal with a corner and it was 3-1.

Ax started the second half well and Tony Pinder hit the upright. But the game was put out of reach when a cross reached the far post where it was put away. Despite their best efforts Axminster conceded again when a penalty made it 5-1.

Axminster were certainly not played off the pitch but have to wait until November 14th (3pm) home v NEWTON ABBOT SPURS for the chance to bounce back to form.

FENITON 3 BEER ALBION 4*D & E Premier*

BEER pulled off the shock result of the day beating local rivals Feniton 4-3 to chalk up only their second league win of the season. The away side took advantage of some sloppy defending and took an early lead through MoM Seth Wakely.

Fenny equalised and then missed a great opportunity to take the lead when Dan Norman failed to convert a penalty.

Callum Gribble put the visitors 2-1 in front with a fine finish and the Fishermen then extended their lead 3-1 through a Richard Walker penalty but Feniton reduced the arrears just before half time.

Beer went 4-2 ahead after the break when Gribble notched his second. Again Feniton pulled back to 4-3 but, in a nail-biting finish, the Fishermen held on for a welcome three points.

Brad Groves, Alex Frankpitt and Ben Ede netted the Fenny consolations.

◆ Beer Albion have been re-instated to the Throgmorton Devon Premier cup after SWest Peninsular League outfit St Martins fielded an ineligible player in their 7-1 first round win.

This means that the Fishermen will now face SWPL's Budleigh Salterton in the second round next Saturday at the Furzebrake. Match sponsors will be The Colcombe Beer Boys.

AXMINSTER RES 4 COUNTESS WEAR 1*D & E Division 4*

A HIGH tempo start saw the Tigers take control against Countess Weir Dynamos. Mark Hancock volleyed home a cross to put Axminster into the lead but, despite continued pressure the Dynamos keeper pulled off a string of fine saves and they were unable to add a second.

Ax extended their lead with a superb individual goal from Sam Dibbling midway through the second half.

The visitors pulled a goal back soon after as a long through ball saw the Tigers defence hesitate which allowed the opposition centre forward to nip in and score.

Any concerns about a comeback were quickly quashed with goals from Alex Wheatley and Harry Jobson.

EXWICK VILLA 5 MILLWEY RISE 3*Division Six*

MILLWEY tasted defeat for the first time this season and can have no complaints about the outcome writes Dick Sturch.

The hosts took the lead in the third minute when a free-kick was met with a well directed header that gave keeper Nathan Hoole no chance.

They then dominated the rest of the half slicing through the Rise defence at will scoring twice more to lead 3-0 at the break.

Two minutes after the restart Millwey were given hope by the in form Levi Hoole but five minutes later the home side scored again to restore their three-goal cushion.

Hoole bagged his second only for an Exwick player, who was allowed the run the length of the field, to increase their lead once more to 5-2.

Millwey upped their game as the half went on. In the final minute Nathan Wormsley burst clear and beat the keeper with a strong shot into the corner of the net, but it was too little too late.

BEER ALBION RES 0 UPLOWMAN 1*Division 5*

BEER Reserves lost their 100 per cent home league record going down 1-0 to Uplowman.

Beer were second-best on the day but they battled hard to stay on even terms and were only beaten by an 80th minute goal.

The visitors who were the best Division 5 outfit seen at the Furzebrake this season and must fancy their chances of winning the title.

The visitors made a lively start but Beer coped well and restricted Uplowman to two chances, one on 20 minutes when keeper Mike Westlake saved well from a header and then on 42 minutes when a shot sailed just over the bar.

But the Beer keeper was finally beaten on 80 minutes when Uplowman striker Jordan scored with a low shot into the corner.

AXMINSTER 3RDS 6 HONITON 3RDS 2*Division 9*

HONITON Town took a deserved early lead as the Tigers struggled to get going.

However, this seemed to galvanise the home side and they drew level through Andrew Gage.

They followed this up with further goals from John Vaughan, Mark Vaughan and Sam Burke added a fourth, giving Axminster a healthy 4-1 lead.

Honiton got their second just before half time to reduce the deficit. But Axminster came out for the second half and dominated adding two more goals from Jean Paul Harris.

MILLWEY RISE RES 2 LAPPFORD RES 1
AFTER several recent single goal defeats, Millwey Reserves at last came good beating Lapford 2-1.

In a very competitive game, Mark Pike, dropping down from the first team, made his presence felt scoring both goals.

The displays of Sam Thomas and young Jack Bennett in the back four gave a massive boost of confidence for the future.

Round-up with Collin Goodwin

AMORY PARK RANGERS are through to the last 16 of the Fire-watch Devon Senior cup after their outstanding 3-2 win at Division 2 TIPTON ST JOHN. The Fourth Division side won the day with goals from Toby Hogan 2 and Daniel Black.

Up in Premier leaders HONITON TOWN let a three goal lead slip away at EXWICK VILLA where it ended 3-3. Joe Murrell, Lewis Couch and Tom Perryman put Honiton in front before Nathan Devereux (2) and Brad Cook rescued Exwick.

TOPSHAM TOWN sent SIDBURY UNITED packing 3-0 with James Fanson, Luka Nickles and Louis Jagger Cane scoring.

HEAVITREE UNITED smashed five goals in the first half hour at SEATON TOWN then took their foot off the gas and settled for 5-1. Scott Jones 2, Dexter Booth 2 and Mike Lashbrook were the Heavies scorers.

UPOTTERY are showing little sign of slowing down in Division One as they tossed SIDMOUTH TOWN aside 7-0. Dan Scadden and Jason Kennard both scored twice, Steve Morris, Sam Winslade and an own goal completing their tally.

Division Two leaders HENRY'S CRONIES hammered of EAST BUDLEIGH 6-0. Billy Rouse with a brace, Mike Benyon, Ben Spiers, Matt Webb and Ryan Burrows scored.

Dan Gammaldi and Teddy Opera were the UNIVERSITY scorers in their 2-0 win against CULM UNITED.

LYME REGIS were 2-1 winners at DAWLISH UNITED in their Bill Slee cup clash. Joe Bond had both goals, while Callum McKenzie scored for Dawlish.

Division Three leaders LAPPFORD won their derby clash with CHERITON FITZPAINE 4-2. Mark Tucker scored twice.

In Division Four Jordan O'Leary scored the only goal of the game for UPLOWMAN ATHLETIC as they won their Division Five match at BEER 1-0.

Jordan Rogers and Adam Harris were the OTTERY ST MARY scorers in a 2-0 win against SANDFORD.

In Division Six Brad Morris and Ryan Salter both scored twice as DUNKESWELL saw off SILVERTON 6-3.

Dan Williams hammered five goals for Division Seven OFFWELL RANGERS in their 10-0 battering of BRADNINCH. Ashley Trudgeon 3, Scott Phillips and Ben Fullick also scored.

PERRY STREET LEAGUE

HAWKCHURCH United extended their unbeaten run to six matches with a 5-2 Division One cup-tie victory at Crewkerne Rangers.

After taking the lead through an own goal, top scorer Gavin Herrod and Josh Short both scored making it 3-0 at half-time.

Herrod took his tally for the season up to 16 with two more after the break before the hosts grabbed a couple of late consolations.

Next Saturday the Hawks, currently top of the table, return to Division One league action with the visit of struggling Combe A.

In Division Two FARWAY UNITED'S scheduled visit by Thorncombe Reserves was postponed, Farway head off to face Merriott Dynamos on Saturday.

Leading quartet
surging clear

THE three unbeaten teams in Division One all retained their 100 per cent records.

Hi Q retained their top spot thanks to a 34-10 win over Signs South West with Jo Channing playing well as they controlled the game leading 22-6 heading into the last quarter. Faye Hawkins was the SSW star. Updown defeated Sidmouth Toucan Chicks 39-27. With Sarah Fryin good form, Updown led from the start but, with Charlotte Yorke playing well, the Chicks were always in touch for a point.

Flamingos moved above Updown by virtue of their big 47-9 win against JD Tyres who are still looking for their first point.

Although Helen Freeman-put in a good display to encourage JD they were always chasing the game with Anna Burley starring for the Flamingos.

Otters held on to their second place spot with a 37-24 win over Tip Top Trees for whom Jess Jeffery had another fine game.

Otters started slowly and at half way 3Ts had a 14-13 lead but in the third period Helen Wright put some fire into the Otters and they fought back to clinch the win.

Ford & Pentecost Panthers had the chance to go top if they could retain their unbeaten record against Blackdown Ladies whose form had taken a dip since their opening day victory.

With Sara Pearce playing well, the Panthers led from the start and going into the final period had a comfortable lead. Rose Cook worked hard for the Ladies but the Panthers finished 30-12 winners.

In the other game Pixies gained their second win to close the gap on fourth placed Toucans. They were up against Swagermamas who were just one goal behind at half way.

In the last two quarters Pixies moved ahead to win by 29-12. Nat Shabytah was the pick of the Pixies with Zoe Berisford the Mamas' star.

Wayne's lasting legacy

CRICKET St THOMAS
with Bert Robinson

THE fine weather last Monday attracted 47 Seniors for the final qualifying medal of the season.

A fine round of nett 68 by newcomer and former Somerset cricketer, Allan Jones was enough to take the Division One title with Nick George just two shots behind.

In Division Two Robin Flower returned a +1 par score of 71, but was beaten by Alan Davis who recovered from a poor start to finish at -1.

Results; Division One — 1st Allan Jones 68, 2nd Nick George 70, 3rd Keith Potter 73.

Division Two; 1st Alan Davis, 2nd Robin Flower, 3rd Mike Mosser 73. Meanwhile, 18 pairs of Seniors entered the 'Medal — Stableford' competition on Wednesday.

In this format the benchmark score is 34. However, conditions were not favourable and the scoring was not up to scratch. A fine effort by Mike Hone & Allan Jones earned them victory by two shots over Trevor Dobson & Ed Paolini.

Result; 1st Allan Jones & Mike Hone 41, 2nd Trevor Dobson & Ed Paolini 43, 3rd John McOmish & Alan Davis 46.

The foul weather on Friday washed out the roll up programme, but did not deter the match team from travelling to Enmore Club for the final match of the year.

The omens were not good as Richard Forster & Nobby Hodder went down 7&6 in the first game.

Barry Heath & Robin Flower steadied the ship in the second game with a half, but with losses at games three, four and five the match was already lost.

Pride was the restored as John Pearce & Bryan Frost came back from two down after 15 holes to win the last three and snatch a one hole win.

Norman Markby & Paul England were unlucky at game 7, as they had victory snatched from their hands on the final hole when their opponents chipped in from 70 yards!

Stuart Pope & Lyndsey Gage salvaged a half in the final game, but the hosts won 6 — 2 overall.

HONITON with Liz Rogers

The Men's Circus Children In Need competition was started in 1991 by Wayne Piper, Barry Dunn & Phil Wall as a way of raising money for the charity.

Sadly Wayne died in 2001 but it is his Memorial Shield that is compete for.

This year a full field of 72 competitors took part in the 25th anniversary tournament. To celebrate the special occasion all previous winners were invited back to play in a special 'past winners' competition — the winner was 1996 winner Barry Cross with 35 points.

Paul Borkowski won the main competition with 38 points.

This year's competition raised over £1,250 for Children in Need and the total raised in the 25 years exceeds £40,000.

JUNIORS SECTION

LAST Wednesday a number of our juniors travelled to tackle the notoriously tricky Saunton Golf Club and competed in the Junior Open on the West Course.

Junior Captain Ben Phillips carded an outstanding gross 76, net 69, in turn winning the best handicap prize in his division.

This led to a handicap reduction for Ben who will now in future be teeing off with a handicap of 6.

LADIES SECTION

THIS week the ladies enjoyed a Stableford competition, playing in teams of three, with the best two scores to count.

This was a shotgun 14-hole competition which meant all teams started off at the same time but from different tees.

The three top teams all came in with 56 points.

After countback the winning team was; Sue Ritchie, Di Wall & Penny Blackburn. In second place was the team of Diana Gee, Olive Pope & Catherine Doherty. Third place was taken by Shelia Palmer, Brenda Hyde & Sharon Dacre. Around £150 was raised for Children in Need.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motson

ON Sunday the Mens Section played the first round of their Winter League, stableford format.

Result — 1st — Dave Steer 43pts, 2nd Steve Reed 32, 3rd Steve Baker 38. Steve Reed and Johnny Potter recorded the only 2s.

The Ladies played a Bowmaker for their Halloween Competition, stableford format with one score to count on the front nine and two scores to count on the back 9.

Result — 1st Glenda Board & Stella Thompson, 2nd Margaret Kenchington & Caroline Bond, 3rd place Helen Kenworthy & Jill Wellington.

At Honiton, Chard IZZA147 continued their good form losing only one frame to WMC. At Colyton the local derby was postponed due to the absence of ExCons players.

Merriott stalwart Margaret lands singles title

with Sandra Sumpter

IN this week's Milford & Dormer League Canaries beat Trull 16-7 to record their first win in this year's competition.

Meanwhile, Hurricanes beat Musbury 16-11 and leaders Harlequins defeated Greyhounds 20-8.

On Friday Chard played HEMYOCK in the East Devon League winning by six games to two and 83 points to 34.

On Saturday the 'Battle of the Sexes' match took place with four games of triples played. Each side won two each but the men won overall by seven points.

HONITON with Julie Grant

THE club opened up the indoor arena to visitors last Friday. Hopefully some will continue their interest in the sport as a pastime, hobby or at more competitive levels.

There were competitions last week for both the men and the ladies.

The men achieved a very good 80-64 win over Donyatt in the two home, two away Denny Cup with both home rinks winning.

The top rink were; Peter Baker, Eddie Sharman, Scott Eveleigh & Steve Dommett 23-12. This sets up a tie with Ilminster in the next round.

The ladies secured four points in the county league against Plymouth in the Foxlands, top rink; Berry Maynard, Brenda Harris, Marian Vessey & Shirley Hiscocks 22-19.

Top triple in the Lane league were Myra Singleton, Jean Mitchell & Di Morley gaining Honiton two points by winning 18-17.

Finally, Axminster were defeated 80-55 in a mixed friendly, top rink; Joan Mackintosh, Les Crook, Daphne Courtney & Eddie Sharman 22-11.

MERRIOTT SMBC

with Anne Weeks

IN the Milford & Dormer league Merriott Canaries played a very tight match against Chard Hurricanes.

The final end required the Canaries' skip to get her bowl as close to the ditch line as possible but sadly it just trickled over and match was lost 12-9.

On Saturday, October 24th Merriott held its annual Club Championship.

Many games were extremely close and the day was made all the more interesting by having all members taking part.

The Club meets on a Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday evenings but it is rare for all players to get together owing to work commitments.

The order of play was decided by names being drawn randomly and therefore in some instances a less experienced player was drawn to play with a more experienced player in the pairs competition, or against in the singles.

The Singles competition was won by Margaret Rowswell who has been a stalwart of the Club since its formation in 1995. She won through to play a final against Frank Smith.

The Pairs competition was won by Anne Weeks & Bill Elston who defeated Lacon Noad & Derek Virgin in the final.

rugby chard Bideford ahead

by Glyn Hughes

AFTER a weekend off Chard RFC return to action next Saturday with a home fixture against Bideford and now have fixtures every Saturday up to and including December 19th.

It is essential that Chard get a settled side as soon as possible if they are to ease themselves up the table. Chard are currently in 10th place and are six points above the 3rd relegation spot.

A settled regular side would have a far better chance of coming out on top in the close encounters and would certainly benefit the 2nd xv who are often losing players at the last minute.

The 3rd xv have really picked up in recent weeks and are attracting more and more local players and the Colts team sit at the top of the Somerset under 18 league.

Before Saturday's game there is a VP lunch, any one intending to come should contact Rob Gilbert (07989 927797).

On Thursday the club will be holding their annual fireworks display. Entry is £5 and u10s are free. Gates open at 6.30pm. Saturday's fixtures:

1st xv home v Bideford, 2nd xv away at Yatton, 3rd xv at home v Yatton (Crewkerne Road pitch), Colts away v Bridgwater.

All kick off times are 2-15pm until March.

Goals aplenty as Seaton topple Knights

Axminster Town v

Honiton Lacers & Hippios Youth

A SLEEPY start in the first game allowed Honiton Lacers to take an early lead.

The Tigers finally awoke and scored an equaliser through Bailey Galloway. In the second half the Tigers with Galloway and Ben Morgan both scoring in a 3-2 win.

The second game of the day against Honiton Hippios the Tigers dominated possession and had plenty of goal chances. With a changed formation, Jack Pulman (2) and George Chapman scored in the 3-0 victory.

Millwey Rise Falcons 1 (Oliver Fountain) Honiton Hornets 3.

EXETER & DISTRICT U11 LEAGUE

Seaton U10s made the trip to Tiverton to face MOORS FC and MOORS EAGLES.

They got off to a slow start against Moors FC and were soon one down. However, Henry Matthews drew the side level with a cool finish but they slipped to a 2-1 defeat after the defence failed to clear their lines.

Next up were the Eagles who held a slender 1-0 lead at half-time.

However, injuries forced a reshuffle and Seaton lost their shape and conceded three times in quick succession.

Aaron Hale struck a sweet consolation from the edge of box as Seaton finished the game strongly in the 4-1 defeat. Man of the Morning was Harvey Green.

Seaton u14s were involved in a goal fest winning 8-5 at home against NEWTON KNIGHTS.

Seaton took the lead through Scott De Gache but the Knights soon galloped away to make it 1-1.

Back came Seaton and a great finish ish saw Braidey Yeo score in the bottom corner before Reece McCabe netted with well struck shot that looped over the keeper.

Newton pulled another back only for McCabe to make the half time score 4-2.

The second half was just as frantic and the goals just kept on coming. McCabe completed his hat-trick before Edward Kenworthy made it 6-2.

Newton scored the next two goals but Seaton were soon comfortable again when McCabe added his 4th and 5th. Newton had the last say but Seaton ran out 8-5 winners.

The game could quite easily have more goals but both keepers - Seaton's William Hellier and most definitely the Newton Knight's keeper, played very well.

Ottery U10s hosted DAWLISH on Saturday in a replay of their drawn 2-2 Cup tie a couple of weeks ago.

This time the Otters took control of the game from the outset. A couple of superb moves and two razor sharp finishes from Freddie Clarke saw the Otters 2-0 ahead within five minutes.

Clarke complete his hat trick with a stunning solo effort after the break and the lead was soon extended through a fantastic goal from Jack Carpenter. The visitors were not disheartened and were rewarded with a consolation goal late on but Ottery won 4-1.
